

Dennis Kampe, Director
Terry Cosentino, Assistant Director

Open House

The Clark County Skills Center is offering two Open House opportunities for Home School and Private School students on Thursday, February 18, 2010, at 11:00 AM or 6:30 PM.

The Clark County Skills Center serves high school Juniors and Seniors and offers 14 Career and Technical Education programs where students can earn high school credit, college credit, state/national certification, and/or employment opportunities.

The Skills Center has received national recognition...

- "Business Week Magazine"; Top three schools in the nation
- Albertson's Foundation; Top six schools in the nation
- National Character Education Association; Exemplary Professionalism Curriculum

Benefits to Home School and Private School Students

Earn High School Credit

Earn Occupational Credit

Earn College Credits

Earn Industry Certification

Earn Apprenticeship Advance Placement

And It's FREE

For more information about the Clark County Skills Center check our website at www.ccskillscenter.com.

"Putting Education to Work"

Serving the needs of local high school and college students

Clark County Skills Center · 12200 NE 28th Street · Vancouver, WA 98682 (360) 604-1050 · FAX (360) 604-1052

www.ccskillscenter.com