Skills Center Foundation Elects New Leadership

Lee Coulthard, Northwest Regional ServiCenter Manager for Boise Paper Solutions in Vancouver, has just been elected President of the Clark County Skills Center Foundation. The ServiCenter is a division of Boise Cascade.

Joining Coulthard on the Foundation Executive Board are Jeff Williams: Owner of Jeff Williams Marketing, Vice President; Mike Anderson: Clark County Sheriff's Office Commander, Past President; Al Deming: financial management consultant, Treasurer; and Terry "Tim" Parsley: educational consultant, Secretary.

Other board members include Tony Bacon, Boren Biswas, Val Ogden, Rodie Lasher, Daniel Marciante, Carolyn Propstra and Bill Firstenburg.

The Skills Center Foundation develops and manages financial resources to enhance the Skills Center operation. Opened in 1983 at 12200 NE 28th Street in Vancouver, the Skills Center is owned and operated by nine southwest Washington school districts. It provides 15 technical and professional training programs to prepare Clark County high school and college students for the work force.
